UNIT VALUE	1.5 Units (3 hours per week)
INSTRUCTOR	Robert Howell
TERM OFFERED	Fall 2010
CLASS TIMES	See Schedule
PREREQUISITES/CO-REQUISITES	None

OBJECTIVES

- To familiarize students with the concept of intellectual property and with the principles and policies of selected areas of intellectual property.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

A study of the concept of intellectual property and the principles and policies of selected areas of intellectual property law primarily: (a) registered trademarks and related common law provisions and (b) copyright in its categories of "literary", "dramatic", "musical", and "artistic" works including an introduction to technologies such as computer programming and other digitization, although a detailed coverage of intellectual property and the Internet is dealt with in Law 367: Telecommunications, Entertainment and Media. In addition, the course includes a brief introduction to the law and policies of patents and confidential information. Again, a detailed coverage of patent law is provided in Law 366: Patent Law. If time is available some reference will be made to industrial designs. Where appropriate attention is drawn to the interrelationship and boundary issues between the categories that together comprise the subject of intellectual property.

METHODOLOGY

- Lectures, discussion and analysis.

EXPECTED EVALUATION METHODOLOGY

- Final written examination 100%.

Subject to (a) and (b) below, this is a CLOSED BOOK examination.

- (a) Each candidate will be supplied in the examination room with a copy of the course syllabus; and
- (b) Each candidate may bring into the examination room copies of the whole of the following statutes so long as they are not annotated or otherwise show any written comment or notation. Only colour highlighting and underlining is permissible.
- Trade Marks Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. T. 13
 - Copyright Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. C. 42
